People at Work

Some people in Chile have got part-time jobs. We interviewed four people about their jobs.

"I'm Johnny Gonzalez. I'm 19 years old and I'm a paper boy. I do a paper round every day of the week so I get up at six thirty everyday. My job is OK. But I don't like getting up early or going out in the rain."

"My name's Jenny Alvarez and I'm 21 years old. I work as a baby-sitter, usually one night a week. In fact, I started baby-sitting when I was 12 because I've got two young brothers.

Baby sitting is good because the children usually just sleep and so I can watch TV or do my homework."

"I'm Karen and I'm 25. I go to an evening school. I just work on Saturday mornings from 8.00 to 2:00 PM. I work in a fast food restaurant. My job isn't very exciting. Sometimes I have problems with customers although some of them are very friendly."

"I'm David and I'm 18. I live in Osorno. I work on Sundays. I'm a milkman assistant. The customers pay for the milk on Saturday so the milkman needs help. I work about six hours. I carry big containers of milk so it's a hard work. I have to get up at 5: 00 AM. It's awful but I need the money."
