Texto Instructivo

Your Grandma bought a computer last week. She does not know how to get onto the Internet and asks for your help. You dictate the instructions to her:

- First, switch on the computer.
- Then open "Internet Explorer" by clicking the Internet Explorer icon.
- Third a dialogue box will appear.
- To log on, type your password in the dialogue box.

If you want to see your e-mails, do the following :

- Open the e-mail software.
- Click on the "Get mail " button.
- Wait for your e-mails to download.
- Click on an e- mail to read it.

Granny ,if you don't understand ,I'll repeat the instructions. It's not so easy at first.
