

Texto Tipo: Un Programa Radial/ Radio Show

Texto Oral

Presenter: Good evening kids. This is our programme "Talking about things that impacted me ". Today we are talking about books you read in your childhood or as a teenager, and had a strong impact in you. We chose the book "Treasure Island" because this was one most of you considered the best.

Remember, if you answer the questions correctly you'll get two tickets for next week concert at the Victor Jara Stadium.

Let's start Raul. Who wrote "Treasure Island "?

Raúl: Mm,let me see. Could you give me a little help, please.

Presenter: He was born in the British Islands, but I'm not giving you the name of the country.

Raul: Was he Charles Dickens?

Presenter: No, he belonged to the 19th century.

Raúl: Now I remember. He was Robert Louis Stevenson.

Presenter: That's Ok. But where was he born? Luisa, so do you know the answer?

Luisa: Yes .He was Scottish. He was born in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Presenter: Excellent, Louisa. And you Jaime, what is the book about?

Jaime: Well, it is an adventure story.

Presenter: Yes, but in fact it is a historical adventure story.

Raul: But tell me Sir, did the story happen in Juan Fernández Island, here in Chile?

Presenter: No, this is another story. Well, children tell me more about R.L. Stevenson

Louisa: He wrote other famous stories: "Kidnapped" and the "Black Arrow".

Presenter: Well, Louisa you know a lot. Children thank you for being in our studio today. Bye!

Children: Thanks for the invitation, Good bye.